PROBLEM(S) WITH YOUR CLAIM:

PROBLEM WITH YOUR CLAIM:

Your claim does not "balance" because you did not provide information about all of your transactions. For your claim to be in balance, using the chart below,  $A + B$  must equal  $C + D + E$ . To the extent the transactions you did provide calculate to a Recognized Loss under the Court Approved Plan of Allocation, your claim will be partially accepted.

Security	Total Transactions	Transaction	Number of Shares
----------	--------------------	-------------	------------------

HOW TO FIX YOUR CLAIM:

A summary of your claim transaction history is provided in the table above. Review your transactional history before, during, and after the class period and compare it to the information you previously provided. Return this letter with the additional transactional information as well as appropriate supporting documentation, such as periodic brokerage statements or broker's trade confirmations (handwritten or self-generated information is not acceptable) showing the new transaction(s).

PROBLEM WITH YOUR CLAIM:

YOUR CLAIM CONTAINS CERTAIN INELIGIBLE TRANSACTIONS. The transaction(s) are ineligible because (1) a transaction was listed twice, (2) the transaction was not in the Class Period, or (3) the transaction was not for an eligible security. The specific transaction(s) at issue are listed below:

Transaction	Security	Trade date	Number of Shares	Price Per Share	Reason for Ineligibility

PROBLEM(S) WITH YOUR CLAIM:

PROBLEM WITH YOUR CLAIM:

YOUR CLAIM CONTAINS TRANSACTIONS THAT ARE GIFTS, OR TRANSFERS INTO, OR OUT OF, YOUR ACCOUNT. The specific transactions at issue are listed in the chart that follows:

Transaction	Security	Transfer date	Number of Shares	Date of Purchase/Sale	Price Per Share	Net Amount
-------------	----------	---------------	------------------	-----------------------	-----------------	------------

HOW TO FIX YOUR CLAIM:

In order to include these transactions in your claim so they may be properly calculated according to the Court-approved Plan of Allocation, you must return this letter with the additional information supplied above. You must also include appropriate supporting documentation, such as periodic brokerage statements or broker's trade confirmations (handwritten or self-generated information is not acceptable) showing the new transaction(s). Gifts or a transfer into the account (also called a "free receipt") are represented in the Transaction field above as a "transfer in". To complete this transaction, you must provide the original purchase information including date, price per share, and net amount. Transfers out of the account (also called a "free delivery") are represented in the Transaction field above as a "transfer out". To complete this transaction, you must provide the final disposition of those shares including date of sale, price per share, and net amount; if the shares were held until the end of the class period simply write "HELD" in the Date of Purchase/Sale field, and provide appropriate documentation.

Claim No:

If you do not intend to supply additional information/documentation, and you still disagree with the determination, you may request Court review of the determination. To request Court review, you must send a letter to the claims administrator within twenty (20) days of the date of this letter and it must: (1) specifically state that you "request that the Court review the rejection of your claim," (2) state your argument(s) for why your claim should be accepted, (3) attach any supporting documents you may have to support your argument, and (4) be signed. Please also include a copy of this letter when requesting Court review of the rejection of your claim. Your claim and its administrative rejection will be presented to the Court for review.
